Soluble Pacific Guano.

200 LBS. SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO contains 70 lbs. animal matter, yielding 7 to 8 lbs. ammonia.
Also 80 to 90 lbs. earthy bone Phosphate of lime, 30 lbs. of which are soluble phosphate.
It combines all the advantages of the best brands of Super Phosphate, with those of Peruvian Guano.
By reason of its greater concentration, we recommend 20 per ct. less by weight to be used per acre, than of any fertilizer costing the same per ton; and no more per acre than of those selling at 20 per ct. more per ton.—Hence its economy.
This guano weighs 65 lbs. per bushel, hence in applying it farmers must be governed by weight and not by bulk, for it is much lighter than the Super Phosphates. Every cargo duly inspected.

GENERAL AGENTS FOR THE SOUTH,
71 South Street, Baltimore.

"Flour of Bone."

WE will give a money guarantee of the purity of this article. It is pure unsteamed, unburnt bone, reduced to the fineness of flour, which adds 100 per ct. to its value. It is as quick and active as acid dissolved bone, hence its value is vastly greater, because it contains neither acid nor water, which necessarily add weight, and reduce the quantity of valuable elements. We recommend 250 lbs. to be used in place of 300 lbs. Super Phosphate or dissolved bone.

ANOTHER SPEECH BY PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

General Grant Present and Endorses It.

The committee appointed by the National Union Convention to wait on the President for the purpose of presenting to him an official copy of the proceedings of the convention, headed by a band of music, reached the White House about 1 o'clock on the 18th ult. They were conducted into the East Room by Marshal Gooding, and so arranged as to form a circle. The delegates to the convention who were in the city were then ushered in, and took seats in the rear of the committee. President Johnson soon appeared, accompanied by Secretaries McCulloch, Welles, Browning, Postmaster-General Randall, and General Grant. Hon. Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, who had been selected as spokesman of the committee, then advanced, and, in an eloquent speech, presented the President with an authenticated copy of the proceedings of the convention. President Johnson, in reply, spoke as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN OF THE COMMITTEE:—Language is inadequate to express the emotions and feelings produced by this occasion. Perhaps I could express more by allowing silence to speak and you to infer what I ought to say. I confess that, notwithstanding the experience I have had in public life, and the audiences I have addressed, this occasion and this assemblage are well calculated to, and do overwhelm me. As I have said, I have not language to convey adequately my present feelings and emotions. In listening to the address which your eloquent and distinguished chairman has just delivered, the proceedings of the convention, as they transpired, recurred to my mind. Seemingly I partook of the inspiration that prevailed in the convention when I received a dispatch sent by two of its distinguished members, conveying in terms the scene which has just been described of South Carolina and Massachusetts, arm in arm, marching into that vast assemblage, and thus giving evidence that the two extremes had come together, and that for the future they were united as they had been in the past, for the preservation of the Union. When the dispatches informed me that in that vast body of men, distinguished for intellect and wisdom, every eye was suffused with tears on beholding the scene, I could not finish reading the dispatch to one associated with me in the office, for my own feelings overcame me. (Cheers.) I think that we may justly conclude that we are moving under a proper inspiration, and that we need not be mistaken, that the finger of an Overruling and Unerring Providence is in this matter. (Loud cheers.) The nation is in peril. We have passed through a mighty, a bloody, a momentous ordeal, yet do not find ourselves free from the difficulties and dangers that at first surrounded us. While our brave men have performed their duties, both officers and men (turning to General Grant, who stood at his right,) while they have won laurels imperishable, there are still greater and more important duties to perform; and while we have had their co-operation in the field, we now need their support in our efforts to perpetuate peace. (Loud cheers.) So far as the Executive Department of the Government is concerned, the effort has been made to restore the Union, to heal the breach, to pour oil into the wounds which were consequent upon the struggle, and, to speak in common phrase, to prepare, as the learned and wise physician would, a plaster, healing in character and co-extensive with the wound. (Loud cheers.) We thought, and yet think, that we had partially succeeded, but as the work progressed, as reconciliation seemed to be taking place, and the country becoming united, we found a disturbing and marring element opposing us.—In alluding to that element I shall go no further than did your convention and the distinguished gentleman who has delivered to me the report of the proceedings. I shall make no reference to it which the the time and the occasion do not justify. We have witnessed in one department of the Government every effort, as it were, to prevent the restoration of peace and harmony in the Union. We have seen hanging on the verge of the Government, as it were, a body called, or which assumes to be, the Congress of the United States—but, in fact, a Congress of only part of the States. We have seen this Congress assume and pretend to be for the Union, when its every step and act tended to perpetuate disunion, and make a disruption of the States inevitable. Instead of promoting reconciliation and harmony, its legislation has partaken of the character of penalties, retaliation and revenge. This has been the course and policy of one department of your Government. The humble individual who is now addressing you stands the representative of another department of the Government. The manner in which he was called upon to occupy that position, I shall not allude to on this occasion: suffice it to say that he is here under the Constitution of the country, and being here by virtue of its provisions, he takes his stand upon the charter of our liberties as the great rampart of civil and religious liberty. (Loud cheers.) Having been taught in my early life to hold it sacred, and having practiced upon it during the whole of my public career, I shall ever continue to reverence that Constitution—the Constitution of the Fathers of our Country—and to make it my guide. (Cheers.) I know it has been said, and I must be permitted to indulge in the remark, that the Executive Department of the Government has been tyrannical. Let me ask this audience of distinguished gentlemen around me here to-day to point to a vote I ever gave, to a speech I ever made, to a single act of my whole public life, that has not been against tyranny and despotism. What position have I ever occupied, what ground have I ever assumed, that it can be truthfully charged that I failed to advocate the amelioration and the elevation of the great masses of my countrymen?—(Cries of "Never," and great applause.)

So far as charges of that kind are concerned, I will say that they are simply intended to deceive and delude the public mind into the belief that there is some one in power who is usurping and trampling upon the rights and preverting the principles of the Constitution. It is done by those who make such charges for the purpose of covering their own acts.—(Cries of "That's so," and cheers.) I have felt it my duty, in vindication of principle and the Constitution of my country, to call attention to these proceedings. When we come to examine who has been playing the tyrant, by whom do we find that despotism has been exercised? As to myself, the elements of my nature, the pursuits of my life, have not made me, either in my feelings or in my practice aggressive. My nature, on the contrary, is rather defensive in its character; but I will say that, having taken my stand upon the broad principles of liberty and the Constitution, there is not power enough on earth to drive me from it. (Prolonged cheering.) Having placed myself upon that broad platform, I have not been awed, dismayed or intimidated by either threats or encroachments, but have stood there, in conjunction with patriotic spirits, sounding the tocsin of alarm whenever I deemed the citadel of liberty in danger. (Great applause.) I said on a previous occasion, and repeat now, that all that was necessary in the great struggle against tyranny and despotism was, that the struggle should be sufficiently audible for the American people to hear and understand. They did hear, and looking on and seeing who the contestants were and what the struggle was about, they determined they would settle the question on the side of the Constitution and principle. (Cries of "That's so," and applause.) I proclaim here to-day, as I have on other occasions, that my faith is abiding in the great mass of the people. In the darkest moment of the struggle, when the clouds seemed to be most lowering, my faith, instead of giving way, loomed up through the dark clouds far beyond—I saw that all would be safe in the end. (Cheers.) My countrymen, we all know, that in the language of Thomas Jefferson, "tyranny and despotism even can be exercised and exerted more effectually by the many than the one." We have seen a Congress gradually encroach, step by step, upon constitutional rights, and violate, day after day, and month after month, the fundamental principles of the Government. (Cries of "That's so!") We have seen a Congress that seemed to forget that there was a Constitution of the United States, and that there was a limit to the sphere and scope of legislation. (Renewed cries of "That's so.") We have seen a Congress in a minority assume to exercise powers which, if allowed to be carried out, would result in despotism or monarchy itself. (Cries of "That's so," and enthusiastic cheers for the President.) This is truth; and because others as well as myself have seen proper to appeal to the patriotism and republican feeling of the country, we have been denounced in the most severe terms. Slander upon slander, vituperation upon vituperation, of the most villainous character, has made its way through the public press.

What, gentlemen, has been your and my sin? What has been the cause of our offending? I will tell you—daring to stand by the Constitution of our fathers. (Loud cheers.)

The President here approached the spot where Senator Johnson was standing, and said:

I consider the proceedings of this convention, sir, as more important than those of any convention that ever assembled in the United States. When I look with my mind's eye upon that collection of citizens, coming together voluntarily, and sitting in council, with ideas, with principles and views commensurate with all the States, and co-extensive with the whole people, and contrast it with the collection of men who are trying to destroy the country, I regard it as more important than any convention that has sat at least since 1787. (Loud cheers.) I think I may say, also, that the declarations that were there made are equal with the Declaration of Independence itself, (cries of "glorious," and most enthusiastic and prolonged applause), and here, to-day I pronounce it a second Declaration of Independence. Your address and declarations are nothing more or less than a re-affirmation of the Constitution of the United States. (Cries of "good," and cheers.) Yes, I will go further, and say that the declarations you have made, that the principles you have enunciated in your address, are a second proclamation of emancipation to the people of the United States—for in proclaiming and reproclaiming these great truths you have laid down a constitutional platform upon which all can make common cause, and stand together for the restoration of the States and the preservation of the government without reference to party. (Cheers.) The question only is the salvation of the country, for our country rises above all party considerations or influences.

Mr. Chairman, I have said more than I intended to say. For the kind allusions to myself contained in your address and in the resolutions adopted by the convention, let me remark that, in this crisis, and at this period of my public life, I hold above all price, and shall ever recur with feelings of profound gratification to the last resolution, containing the indorsement of a convention emanating spontaneously from the great mass of the people. I trust and hope that my future action may be such that you and the convention may not regret the assurance of confidence you have expressed in me. Before separating, my friends, one and all, committee and strangers, please accept my sincere thanks for the kind manifestations of regard and respect you have exhibited on this occasion. I repeat, I shall always continue to be guided by a firm and conscientious conviction of duty, and that always gives one courage, under the Constitution, which I make my guide.

At the conclusion of the President's remarks, three cheers were enthusiastically given for Andrew Johnson, and three more for General Grant. The President and Gen. Grant then retired arm-in-arm, and the committee and the audience gradually dispersed.

TAX ON CIGARS.

The enclosed letter answers questions of interest to manufacturers of cigars, of whom there are quite a number in this county.

Treasury Department, Washington, Aug. 4, 1866.—Sir: In answer to yours of the 1st inst., I have to say that the tax on cigars, &c., is to be assessed upon the price they are sold, if such price is established by a bona fide sale; if not, upon an appraised value, or the value at which cigars, &c., of like quality, are selling in the market.

If the cigars are sold for $8 per M. the tax is $2 per M.; if they are sold for $10 per M. the tax is $4 per M.

Cigars sold for more than $12 per M. are liable to $4, more than one-fifth of the price they are sold for, as tax. Cigars, &c., sold for $18, $20, $24, $30, $50, $80 or $100 per M. are liable to $7 60, $8, $8 80, $10, $14, $20, $24, respectively, of tax.—The excise law does not recognize a "market value," or a "taxable value," which excludes the tax. Yours, respectfully, THOMAS HARLAND,
Deputy Commissioner.

☞Murdock, the actor, read the Declaration of Independence on the Fourth, at Madison, Wis. A radical present, mistaking the document, interrupted the reading, and said he didn't think much of such a speech on the 4th of July, or the man who was making it.

That fellow is a fair type of the Radical Republicans. The only part of the Declaration of Independence which they regard as of any worth, is the clause which they torture into an endorsement of negro equality. The rest of the immortal document sounds too much like an indictment of their corrupt and tyrannical party to be relished by them.

☞Clymer will be elected Governor.

THE MATERIAL OF WHICH MARTYRS ARE MADE

"Dr. A. P. Dostic," the New Orleans revolutionist and negro suffrage "martyr," whose wounds and dying moments are so graphically described by the pen limners of the Disunion press, is thus described by the N. Y. World:

"Dr. Dostic, six years ago, was a dentist in Chicago. He migrated to New Orleans and pursued his business with no great success in that city. When the war broke out, having to some extent the gift of gab, he became a ranting 'Rebel,' addressing street gatherings and departing regiments. With what wind there was in him he fanned the flames of secession and 'fired the Southern heart.' Butler came and he was a 'Union' man. Banks followed, and he was an ardent asplrant and finally successful applicant for office. He then fought his battles for the Union by rising in the parquettes of the Opera House and the Varieties Theatre, waving a two-shilling calico flag, and shouting to the orchestra to play 'Hail Columbia.' He succeeded on two or three occasions in producing a panic among hundreds of frightened ladies in the audience, once nearly achieved a riot, closed the Opera House, and compelled the orchestra to play patriotic airs by military order. This sums up Dostic's services to the Union. A rabid, ranting fanatic, he was naturally a 'Rebel' while rebellion paid, and he as naturally fell into the radical ranks when radicalism was more remunerative."

A citizen of Amsterdam, New York, touches upon his antecedents more fully and prosaically than will be agreeable to the John Brown school of politicians. He says:

"Let me give you some of his antecedents. He for some years was a resident of Amsterdam, New York, where he pursued the calling of a village barber. He was a man of light build, with a sharp, pale face, long hair floating over the collar of a seedy black coat, enormous Byron shirt collar, unbuttoned at the throat, and a hat having the style of brim affected by the 'sports.' Altogether his appearance made him a terror to small boys, and a laughing-stock and butt for those of larger growth. In connection with his barber shop, of which he was sole proprietor and the only journeyman, he started a cheap bathing establishment, consisting of a force-pump and two tubs, wherein the great and small unwashed might bathe for six and one-quarter cents the bath. The enterprise, however, did not pay, and Dostic's capital in pump and tubs was all afloat. With no means to pay his board and washing bills, poverty stared Dostic in the face, unless something should opportunely turn up. The dental art suggested a remedy for Dostic's woes, and after a course of instruction under the village dentist, covering, by count, exactly two weeks and three days, Dostic was graduated a 'doctor' of dentistry. The 'doctor' then migrated to Chicago, where I lost sight of him till the hero of many

THEIR DOOM IS SEALED.

There is evidently great trepidation in the Radical ranks all over the country.—They begin to see the hand-writing on the wall—hence the insane appeals of their press, not only here in Pennsylvania, but throughout the entire North.—The National Union Convention is a great source of trouble, and they are resorting to all possible means to counteract the happy effect it has already had on the public mind. And, as if to verify the truth of the old adage that "misfortunes never come single," they are now perplexed beyond measure at the call made by a large number of the army officers—the fighting Generals of the war—for a Soldier's Convention to be held at Cleaveland, on the 17th of September, to sustain President Johnson in his patriotic efforts for a restoration of the Union. They also see that the great Democratic party of the country was never more firmly united, and that thousands and tens of thousands of conservative Republicans are joining heart and hand with them to crush out of existence the Radical faction which has driven the Nation to the very verge of bankruptcy, anarchy and destruction.

All this is so apparent that Greeley mourns over the gloomy prospect for his party. Forney raves like a bedlamite, and is ready to call upon the mountains to fall upon and hide him from the stern gaze of an insulted and betrayed people. The beast Butler froths and foams at the thought of the fearful retribution which awaits him, and Stevens, in his wrath and malignity, vents his spleen on the foreign population who cannot be induced to swallow the negro. In the mean time the conservative element of the country is hourly gaining strength and efficiency, and by the time the election arrives, its force and momentum will be irresistible, and the halls of Congress will be purged of the traitors and disunionists who have for too long a time been permitted to lord and tyrannize over this goodly heritage of our fathers.

Their doom is sealed. Belshazzar-like, the leaders of the Radical party are trembling with fear. Their cohorts are becoming more and more demoralized.—The light of truth is breaking in upon the country, and dispelling the dark cloud of error and superstition. The people are aroused to a sense of their danger, and they are determined that the Union and the Constitution shall be preserved, and that the enemies of both shall be put down. It is the consciousness of all this that has struck terror into the Radical camp, and caused the trepidation and alarm which is apparent in all the writings and speeches of disunion leaders.

Courage, Democrats, we have the vantage ground; the day is our own. The country will be redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled from the foul tyranny which has paralyzed its energies and wasted its substance for the last several years.

STRANGE "REBELS!"

The Radical presses and orators are in the habit of denouncing the great National Union Convention at Philadelphia, on the 14th of August, as a gathering of "copperheads" and "rebels," to whose doings no weight should be given. The following, from the New York Times, will show what sort of "rebels" some of the delegates were:

A noticeable feature in the great National Convention was the large number of prominent general officers of the Federal army during the late war.—There was Steadman—and who, seeing him rise in the Convention, but remembered the terrible, scorching battle-heat of Chickamauga, where Steadman stood unwavering among the most trusted and valued of the lieutenants of Thomas. There was Custer—how the nation loves and adores him! Custer!—the synonym of dashing gallantry and unfaltering fidelity. Said Sheridan, on one of the days before Cold Harbor, "Custer, I wish you would take a regiment and clean those fellows out." "Those fellows" were a brigade of the enemy half a mile away upon the left. Custer looked at his watch, estimated mentally the distance, and mounted his horse, saying, "General, it shall be done in twenty minutes." In twenty minutes it was done. That was Custer. There was Rousseau—we all remember him, the gallant soldier, the steadfast patriot, who rode the Union battle-line through scores of conflicts. There was Crawford, a division commander in the Army of the Potomac from the Wilderness to Appomattox. There were McDowell, McCook, —from first to last throughout the war serving the cause of the Union in the van of its armies, and holding high commands. To these could be added scores of others, of lesser renown perhaps, but not less faithful soldiers of the Republic.

Strange "rebels," these!

The old Whig organ at Washington, the National Intelligencer, states by authority that Generals Grant, Meade, Sherman, Hancock, Crawford, Sheridan and others are enthusiastic in their support of President Johnson, and endorse his policy and his views. The officers of the navy to a man are with the President.

Strange "rebels," these!

To the call for a National Soldiers' Convention at Cleveland, Ohio, on the 17th of September, of those "who approve the restoration policy of the President, and the principles announced by the National Union Convention at Philadelphia," we find the names of the following Committee: Major General G. A. CUSTER, Major General A. D. McCOOK, Major General L. H. ROUSSEAU, Major General G. W. COOK, Brevet Major General S. MEREDITH, and Brevet Major General THOMAS EWING, JR. As cordially endorsing and approving of the call, it is further signed by Major General John A. Dix, Major General James B. Steadman, Major General F. P. Blair, Major General H. W. Slocum, (who commanded a corps at Gettysburg,) Major General Marsena R. Patrick, Major General Gordon Granger, Major General John A. McClernand, Major General D. N. Couch, (who commanded this Department,) Major General W. H. Averill, Major General H. E. Davies, Major General Orlando B. Wilcox, Major General A. S. Williams, Major General Gersham Mott, Major General Hugh Irving, Major General Theodore Runyan, Major General Wm. B. Franklin, Major General Thomas L. Crittenden, Major General G. K. Warren, with a hundred and fifty others officers.

Strange "rebels," these!

It is safe to say that fully nine-tenths of the officers of the Army, and all of the Navy, are openly and heartily with President Johnson. Those against him are military pretenders like Banks, Butler, Shurz and Geary. Should not the whole country, and especially the "boys in blue," (who fought for the Union, not for the negro,) make a note of these significant FACTS—facts which should be overwhelming against Radicalism.

THE REAL ISSUE.

The aim of the Radicals is to pull "wool over the people's eyes"—to deceive them in every possible way, not stopping at any falsehood, however barefaced or infamous. In pursuance of this game, they are now raising the cry that "negro suffrage is not an issue."

Last fall they said the same, and yet no sooner had they carried the elections than they advocated it wherever they had power. One of the first acts of Congress was to pass a bill through the House, forcing negro suffrage upon the District of Columbia—and this act was promptly endorsed by the Republicans in the Senate of this State, among the "YEAS" standing the name of McConaughy.

Of the State Convention which nominated Geary, Forney's Press said:

"The Union men in council at Harrisburg, last Wednesday, did not shirk the question of negro suffrage."

Thaddeus Stevens—a Radical candidate for United States Senator, on the 5th of December, 1865, introduced in Congress the following amendment to the Constitution, viz:

ARTICLE 13. All National and State laws shall be equally applicable to every citizen, and no discrimination shall be made on account of color or race.

Mr. Forney, another candidate for Senator, says:

"I am unhesitatingly in favor of conferring the ballot on the negro."

Stevens and Forney have Geary in charge, and they oppenly declare themselves in favor of negro suffrage. Would they take such ground if they did not believe the question to be in issue?

The matter is too plain to be disguised. The Radicals have no other plank but the Negro, and if successful he will receive all their care as heretofore. It therefore becomes the duty of every man opposed to the elevation of the negro to a level with the white man, to vote against every candidate upon a Radical ticket, from Governor down to the lowest. It is only by beating Radicalism thoroughly now that negro suffrage will cease to be an "issue."

☞ The Geary meeting at Reading fell far short of expectations. Nearly all those in attendance were from abroad—Old Berks responding very feebly. The "military glory" of the occasion centered in John W. Geary and John L. Burns!

☞ In their desperation, caused by the fear of being beaten at the polls, the Radicals have become as foul-mouthed and unscrupulous in their hostility to President Johnson as were the same class of men to President Jackson in 1828 and 1832. They will fail now as they failed then, because they have the same kind of an "Old Hickory" to deal with.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON GOES TO CHICAGO.

On Tuesday morning, President Johnson, accompanied by General Grant, Admiral Farragut, Secretary Seward, Secretary McCulloch, Secretary Welles, Postmaster General Randall, Attorney General Stanbery, Senator Patterson, Major General King, Major General Fessenden, Brigadier General McCallum, and others, left Washington, en route for Chicago, to assist at the laying of the corner-stone of the Douglas Monument.

They were met at Annapolis Junction by Gov. Swann and staff, and at Camden Street Depot by the Mayor and a committee of prominent citizens of Baltimore, and escorted through the city to the Philadelphia Depot. They were received with distinguished honors along the route to Philadelphia, and in that city a grand ovation awaited them. The Radical Mayor and City Councils meanly refused an official reception to the President of the Republic, but THE PEOPLE took the matter in hand, and the result was one of the largest and most enthusiastic demonstrations ever witnessed in that city. The merchants and the business men, the mechanics and the laborers, abandoned their pursuits to join in a fitting tribute of respect to "THE PEOPLE'S PRESIDENT." It was not only a credit to the city, but a stinging rebuke to her narrow-minded and bigoted authorities—and added thousands to the supporters of Andrew Johnson.

Through New Jersey the President was received with the warmest enthusiasm, and in the city of New York every possible honor was paid him. The military and citizens turned out in immense force, and in the evening there was a grand banquet and a serenade. The President spoke frequently in response to the calls of the people, on all occasions asserting his faith in the thorough restoration of the Union under the Constitution, and his determination to stand by them under any and all circumstances. On several occasions he thoroughly exposed the disunion designs of the Radicals, and urged the people to frustrate those designs at the polls.

On Thursday the party started for Chicago, and were warmly received at all points along the route. President Johnson is daily winning more and more upon popular esteem and support.

THE AX FALLING!

The Radical Postmaster at Lancaster has been removed. So have the Radical Collector and Assessor of that district. Many other removals are announced in this and other States.

The work of decapitation now so fairly begun, will doubtless be pushed forward with vigor. The President has borne long and patiently with the faithlessness to the Union of the men who have been fattening on the spoils of office for the last five years, but he can do so no longer. Those who are not "loyal" to the whole Union, should not hold any of its offices. Place and power are only safe in the hands of those who "support the Government."

☞ The negro Radicals here are resorting to some very "small" tricks—among the rest, that of starting reports that this or that prominent Democrat will not vote for one or another of the candidates upon the Democratic ticket. This is done to inspire hope among their own followers, and produce the opposite effect among Democrats.

We allude to the matter only to put our friends throughout the county on their guard against this and all other Radical falsehoods. Rarely has a Democratic ticket been better received than the one now before the people of Adams county, and never before had Democrats stronger reasons to stick to their ticket—their whole ticket—than in these freedman's-bureau-and-negro-rights times.—Democrats understand that to vote for a Radical candidate is to endorse negroism—(deny it as Radicalism may)—and they have no stomach for such disgusting work.

The Democrats of Adams intend to support their own ticket, and mean to elect it! Radical blowers may as well bottle their lies, or take them to some other market. They will do them no good here.

☞ Radical demagogues hereabouts pretend that negro suffrage is not in issue. They asserted the same thing last fall.—McConaughy declared it upon the stump, and every where else—and yet upon being hocus pocused into the Senate, he found the issue there, and met it by squarely voting for negro suffrage in the District of Columbia! Honest men, make your own comments.

☞ Col. Wm. C. Talley, who commanded the First Pa. Reserve Regiment, (which contained a company from this county,) has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the 7th District of Pennsylvania, in place of a Radical.—President Johnson stands by the soldiers.

Another!—Capt. John S. Forrest, Johnson Republican, has been appointed Postmaster at Hanover, in place of W. F. Stair, Radical.

☞ The Radicals of Philadelphia, who used to pretend such great love for the soldiers, would'nt turn out on Tuesday to manifest any respect for Grant and Farragut. Reason—Grant and Farragut are for the Union.

☞ Holbrook, the Democratic candidate for Delegate to Congress from Idaho, will have 500 majority, says a dispatch from San Francisco. Good!

☞ The Harrisburg Patriot & Union counts upon a certain gain of six Democratic members of Congress in this State, with a chance for one or two more.

☞ The Washington Constitutional Union says it has been definitely arranged that the test of genuine support of the President's policy in Pennsylvania, will be the support of Hiester Clymer—he endorsing that policy, and Geary opposing it.

☞ Fred. Douglass, the negro, has been elected a delegate to the Radical Convention, to meet at Philadelphia today. "Birds of a feather."

☞ The sale of the farm of Joseph Hemler, deceased, will take place on Saturday next, (the 8th.)

TOWN AND COUNTY AFFAIRS.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN.—The Gettysburg Compiller will be furnished from this time until after the October election at TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, in advance. We have already added hundreds of campaign subscribers to our list, but will make room for more.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The Adams County Agricultural Society will hold its Fourth Annual Exhibition, on the grounds of the Society, at Bendersville, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the 25th, 26th and 27th days of September instant. We call the attention of the whole people of the county to this subject, with the hope that they will heartily second the efforts of the President and Managers to make this the most successful Fair the Society has yet had. Farmers, manufacturers, mechanics, artists, fruit-growers, ALL, should lend a helping hand. And the ladies—much always depends upon their aid.—With a general effort, the Fair will be everything that could be desired—and should not county pride alone induce that effort?

The trial course has been much improved by grading, &c., and the entire establishment will be thoroughly brushed up by the time of the Fair. An unusually large attendance is looked for, and preparations will be made accordingly.

MARK'S CHURCH.—Mark's Church, (German Reformed,) in Mountjoy township, having undergone alterations and repairs, will be re-opened for worship on Sunday next, at 10 o'clock, A. M. Exercises appropriate to the occasion will be had.

This Church is among the oldest yet standing in the county, having been erected in 1789. The preacher in charge at that time was Rev. George Troldenier—and the following are the names signed to the original constitution: John Tawney, Samuel Fry, David Little, George Heagy, Nicholas Marks, John Mayer, Francis Stallsmith, Michael Hoke, Peter Moritz, Daniel Heck, Andrew Little, Philip Schlentz, George Fehl, Andrew Esenbach, Michael Moritz, John Heagy, Samuel Huf, John Troxel, Jacob Klein, Jacob Baumgertner, Jacob Wirth, Adam Tawney, John Miller, John Rohrbach, Michael Frey, Justus Frotanaut, Henry Fourer, Jacob Troxel. The first child baptized was Samuel Bernheisel, Nov. 5th, 1789.

The re-opening services will be of a peculiarly interesting character, and will have reference, to some extent, to the early building of the edifice. A large concourse of people will no doubt be attracted.

PIC NIC.—The German Pic Nic announced for Wednesday at Wolf's Spring, was, on account of the rain on that day, postponed until Thursday, when it came off—and a grand success it was. Our German friends of town and neighborhood were nearly or quite all there, whilst a large number of "outsiders" also attended. Visiting the ground in the afternoon, we found enjoyment reigning everywhere. A fine band of music and a good dancing floor had been secured, and this combination became, of course, the centre of attraction. Other amusements were had—beside an interesting game of base ball in the field adjoining. The Germans "can't be beat" in getting up pleasure occasions, and their success on Thursday will doubtless lead to many of a similar character hereafter. The Gettysburg Band, under Prof. Gundrum, was a delightful feature of the Pic Nic.

BASE BALL.—The Gettysburg Base Ball Club re-organized last week by electing T. D. Carson, President; W. R. Eyster, Secretary; J. Harvey White, Treasurer, and T. C. Norris, John M. Krauth, and Wm. H. Wysotzkey, Directors.

On Friday afternoon week, a game of base ball was played between the Petersburg Club of York Springs and the New Oxford Club. The game was played at New Oxford, and lasted three hours.—The Oxford Club's count was 41 and that of Petersburg 19. The game is to be played over at Petersburg soon.

STEALING.—A German named Jacob Mayer, living near the Wolf Hill, was, on Saturday evening week, arrested by officer Rouzer, on suspicion of having stolen a load of shingles from James H. Marshall, Esq., in Carroll's Tract. The shingles were not only found in his possession, but also a variety of other articles supposed to have been stolen—bags of oats, leather, bridles, saddle, spreaders, locking machine, &c.

We are informed that several of these articles have since been identified by persons from whom they were stolen.—Mayer is in jail.

☞ Mrs. Wm. Settle, of Franklin township, has kindly sent us a basket of white mercer potatoes, of the finest possible quality, for which she has our thanks. They were genuine white, like Clymer stock; none of your black, Abolition, Geary growth.

☞ Samuel Herbst has purchased the property belonging to Wm. Douglass, on Carlisle street, for $2500 cash.

☞ When the Radicals say "Only loyal men shall rule!" they mean such disunionists as Thad Stevens, Wendell Phillips, and their army of followers, white and black. And when they proclaim "No more rebel raids upon the Treasury!" they mean that the PEOPLE'S MONEY shall continue to be expended in feeding idle negroes, and in further enriching such "loyal" chaps as Forney, McPherson, and others holding fat offices under Congress. "Loyalty" has been paying some people, and hence their desperate struggles to hold on to the public "teat." But to give them longer rule would be to plunge the country into irretrievable ruin.

☞ A great Democratic Mass Meeting will be held at York, on Monday, the 24th of September. Hiester Clymer is to be there.

☞ Hiester Clymer is now stumping the State, and is making hosts of new friends wherever he goes.

CAMPAIGNS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.—Mr. J. B. Watkins is now canvassing this county for subscribers to Swinton's "Campaigns of the Army of the Potomac," published by the National Publishing Company, Philadelphia. The author announces the design of the book to be, to "record, as far as may now be done, what that Army did and suffered, in ten campaigns and two score of battles, in Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania;" tracing "how this force arose, and its first essays and failures; how it grew into the shape and substance of an army; and how it then entered upon campaigns, bloody, indecisive, and protracted;" showing "how this army, losing again and again the component parts of its structure—thinned by death and wounds, and wasting disease, and filled up again by the unquenched patriotism of the people—never lost its individual being, but remained the Army of the Potomac still;" following "it through a checkered experience, in a tale commingled of great misfortunes, great follies and great glories;" and how, "amid many buffets of fortune through 'winter and rough weather,' the Army of the Potomac never gave up, but made a good fight, and finally reached the goal."

Secretary Seward, in a letter to the author, says: "It is a great subject, and I know your ability and candor so well as to feel assured you have treated it as it deserves." Gen. Couch says: "It is plain to see you have produced a truthful narrative—a new era in American military writing."

The work will be printed with new and clear type, on fine calendered paper, made expressly for the book, to be comprised in one large volume of 640 pages, illustrated with steel portraits of its several commanders, Generals Grant, McClellan, Burnside, Hooker and Meade, and 25 elaborate maps and plans of the principal scenes of its operations, prepared expressly for this work by Col. W. H. Paine. It will be furnished to subscribers in neat and substantial binding, at the following prices, payable on delivery: In Extra English Cloth, $4 per copy; In Half Calf, (Library style,) $6 per copy.

Mr. Watkins, the agent, will remain in Gettysburg several days, to afford our citizens an opportunity to subscribe for the work.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT ABBOTTSTOWN.

A large Democratic meeting was held at the public house of F. J. Wilson, in Abbottstown, on Saturday evening, the 25th of August. Henry Miller, Esq., was appointed President; John Mollison, J. McLain, Peter Hoffheins, Henry Wolf, Frederick Dellone and Samuel Kinneman, Vice Presidents; and James W. Marshall and Charles Dosh Secretaries.

James B. Ziegler, Esq., of York, Dr. D. S. Peffer, of Abbottstown, and Dr. W. J. McClure, of New Oxford, addressed the meeting in an able and eloquent manner. The most encouraging enthusiasm prevailed—all were confident of success in October. The ball is in motion in the Lower End. May it not cease rolling until success shall crown a gallant fight in a good cause. The meeting adjourned with rousing cheers for Johnson, Clymer and the whole Democratic ticket.

A BYSTANDER.

☞ We learn that a number of Radical rowdies behaved in an outrageous manner at an opposite corner, with a view of disturbing the meeting. Democrats want to be at peace with their neighbors, but they will not allow their rights to be trampled upon. Radical rowdies may as well take notice in time.

THE PROGRESS OF THE MINERAL SPRINGS.

I hear the expression of a good deal of discontent with what is considered the slow development of the mineral springs near this town, by some of our citizens.

Many, even intelligent persons, seem to think that the great superiority of these medical waters ought to be as patent to the rest of the world as it is to the residents in the vicinity, and that it is the fault of the Springs Company, or the owner of the springs, that Gettysburg is not more the resort of the health and pleasure-seekers of the country, and the seat of a vast export trade in mineral waters, rivalling Saratoga and Vichy. In their anxiety these persons overlook the much that has really been done, and the rapid strides which these waters have made in the public estimation. One year ago they were comparatively unknown, at least unrecognized by the great public as medicinal. Now they are familiar as household words over an area of country around them a hundred miles in extent, while their fame has extended to the limits of the republic. Nearly every newspaper in the country has noticed them.

Many leading journals have bestowed upon them editorial articles. The Governor of the State has noticed them in a letter intended for publication.

One year ago it was not certainly known that these waters were medicinal—it was only rumored. Now the doubt is whether they have any equal as a medicinal fluid in the country or in the world. The subjects of the cures of these waters, or rather of the miracles wrought by them, are to be found in every neighborhood for many leagues around, and in neighboring towns and cities.

Now these are facts which constitute in the world's estimation what is called reputation, which is the basis of value of medicinal waters. They must precede in the order of events any investments of capital.

Perhaps no Springs in any age or country ever made such rapid progress toward permanent success, which is now close at hand. Let the disconsolate, therefore, cheer up; the skies are brightening and the parties interested are about to make new efforts to consummate results.

STAND BACK, WHITE SOLDIERS.

The pay department announces its readiness to pay the bounties to negro soldiers, granted by the Rump Congress in June last. It will require $20,000,000 (twenty million dollars) to meet such claims. This will drain the treasury so low that the white soldiers will have to wait many months yet for their bounties. Congress provided bounty for the white soldiers out of "any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated;" but as the negro bill was passed first, the darkey soldiers' claims must all be paid before the white soldiers can reach a dollar.

None of the Government officers are responsible for this; they must obey the laws as passed by the Rump Congress.—The blame is entirely with the Disunion majority, who considered it their first duty to reward their "colored brethren" because in the war they "bore off the palm." (?) Let it be recollected, too, that the sum of $300 each was appropriated for the negroes, although none of them served three years, and that only the sum of $100 was set aside for the white soldiers of 1861 and 1862 for three years' service. Can the soldiers of Pennsylvania vote for Stevens, Lawrence, Mercur, KOONTZ and others of the Disunion Congressmen who have been re-nominated, after such shabby treatment? Can they vote for their candidate—Geary—who approves the whole course of the Rump, and agrees with Thad Stevens in everything?—Patriot and Union.

ASTHMA CURED.

Mr. Wm. May, of 245 Spring Street, New York, writes, Jan. 1, 1856: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike.—My friend gave me one of Allcock's and urged me to use it. I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years. Agency, Brandreth House, New York. Sold by Druggists.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers. Indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. The Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by A. D. Buehler, Gettysburg.

Blue Mass, and other preparations of Mercury, actually produce more suffering and death than the diseases which they profess to cure. And yet this corrosive mineral so denounced by the allopathic doctors, is prescribed by them almost universally in Liver Complaint, Consumption of Lungs, &c.

THE MANDRAKE PILLS

are composed entirely of roots and herbs, obtained from the great Storehouse of Nature, and their salutary effects will appear as soon as the medicine is brought to the test of a fair experiment. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS do not produce any nausea or sickness of the stomach; but when given for Dyspepsia, it may be proper to use them in connection with SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC. By this judicious treatment the digestive faculties are speedily restored to their full vigor, and the worst cases of indigestion may be cured.

When we reflect that the liver is the largest internal organ of the body, that to it is assigned the important duty of filtering the blood and preparing the bile, that it is subject to many disorders, and that when it is diseased or inactive the whole body suffers sympathetically, it is not surprising that a medicine which can restore the healthy operations of the Liver should produce wonderful changes in the general health, and effect cures which may appear to be almost miraculous. Headache of long continuance, severe pains in the side, breast and shoulders, aching of the limbs, a feeling of general weakness and wretchedness, and other alarming and distressing symptoms, indicative of imperfect or disordered action of the liver, are speedily removed by the use of SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.

Costiveness, Piles, bilious or nervous attacks, and that indescribable feeling of oppression, mental anxiety, Languor, lethargy, and depression of spirits which unfit a man for the management of business and the enjoyment of life, are all relieved by the use of SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.

DR. SCHENCK—Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in sending you a certificate in addition to many you have already received from suffering humanity. I can scarcely find language sufficiently strong to express my heartfelt gratification of the wonderful cures your MANDRAKE PILLS and SEAWEED TONIC have effected in the entire cure of one of the most stubborn cases of the affection of the liver. For three years I suffered beyond description; all my friends, as well as myself, came to the conclusion that my time in this life was short. Such was the terrible condition to which I was reduced that life to me had become a burthen; my whole system was in a state of inflammation; I could not eat, I could not sleep; my whole body was filled with pain; swelling would arise in my wrists and ankles, rendering them totally useless. On several occasions I was attacked with a rush of blood to the head, which would fell me to the ground, and I would be carried away for dead. I applied to several eminent physicians of our city, who administered all the medicines that they thought would reach my case, but of no avail.

One of them said he could do no more for me, and advised me, as a last resort, to drink Cod Liver Oil. Not relishing the horrid trash I declined to take it. Accident put your advertisement in my hands. I called on you; you examined me and told me the nature of my disease. You then ordered me the Pills and Tonic with an observance of diet, pledging your word that in one week I would find myself another man. I followed your advice, and, as you predicted, an astonishing cure was effected. I continued your Pills and Tonic for some time, and now thank God for his goodness, and your valuable medicine, I am once more restored to perfect health. I most earnestly recommend those who are suffering from affection of the liver to give your Pills and Tonic a fair trial, and a cure will be effected. I have sent many persons to you, and they have all been cured. Any information my fellow-citizens may require will be freely given by the subscriber, at his residence, No 812 Federal street, between 8th street and Passyunk road.

CORN CRUSHERS.

Three different sizes for grinding Corn in the ear, or shelled—or any other kind of grain. The high price of feed of all kinds makes an imperative demand for some kind of machinery by which to save. It is a rapid grinder and durable.

BELLS FOR CHURCHES,

SCHOOLS, FARM HOUSES, FOUNDRIES, &c. Made of the best steel composition. Church Bells insured for one year.

WILLOUGHBY'S GUM SPRING DRILL,

WITH CROWELL'S GUANO ATTACHMENT. This is considered one of the best Drills now in use. It will distribute any kind of grain evenly, and sow from one bushel up to three to the acre. The Guano Attachment has given entire satisfaction wherever used. It is so constructed as not to clog in sowing any kind of Phosphates or Bone Meal. Having sold a number of these machines last season, I can fully recommend them to be what they are represented. Persons wishing to buy should make application early as the supply is small and the demand great.

F. F. SMITH'S CAST STEEL PLOUGHS.

First, It is the only Plough yet produced that will invariably scour in any soil.

Second, It is now an established fact that It will last from three to six times longer than any other steel plough in use.

Third, It draws lighter than any other Plough, cutting the same width and depth of furrow.

The different parts of the Plough are cast in moulds, into the exact shape desired for the mould-boards, shares and land-sides, giving the parts most exposed to wear any desired thickness. The shares can be sharpened by any blacksmith. The steel is perfectly malleable and works kindly. Edge tools have been made out of pieces of the plough by blacksmiths all over the country.

THE GROVER & BAKER.—THE BEST IN USE. These Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machine. They are the only machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to Family use. They are almost noiseless, sew directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They save labor, they save time, and they save money, and do their work better than it can be done by hand.

Grand Jury Report.

TO the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for Adams county.

The Grand Jury for the August Term, 1866, having visited the Public buildings, beg leave to submit the following report:

We found the Jail building, with the cells, &c., in good order, neat and clean, and in a condition highly creditable to the officer in charge.

We have the same to say in regard to the Alms-house. The rooms of the inmates, as well as the beds, presented an air of cleanliness and comfort which spoke well for the Steward.

We noticed that the buildings and grounds immediately surrounding them were enclosed with a fine substantial fence, which, whilst it adds considerably to the appearance of the place, is also a great convenience, and assistance to the Steward, by keeping the inmates within bounds. We also noticed a great improvement in the Cooking department, an excellent Range having been put up, which lessens the labor of preparing food, at a saving of fuel. These improvements, whilst naturally attended with considerable expense, we consider as permanent and necessary.

We noticed that one of the rooms in the northeast end of the main building has been injured by the roof becoming defective, and call the attention of the Directors thereto.

Respectfully submitted.

The Great Bone Fertilizer.

BAUGH'S RAW BONE PHOSPHATE, containing 53 per cent. of Phosphate of Lime, and 5.05 per cent. Ammonia.

It should be borne in mind that the Phosphate of Lime in this article being obtained exclusively from RAW BONES and a TRUE BIRD GUANO, there is NO PORTION of it INOPERATIVE, as in the case of SUPER PHOSPHATES made from MINERAL GUANOS—but being entirely SOLUBLE in the SOIL, continues to IMPART its FERTILIZING qualities to the CROPS for YEARS.

The REMARKABLE SUCCESS which has attended its use for years past, is a sufficient GUARANTY to induce those who have not tried it to do so.

The GRAIN CROP where this FERTILIZER has been applied is supposed to have been INCREASED from 25 to 50 per cent. by its use, while for TOBACCO and GRASS LANDS its success has been EQUALLY DECIDED.

CHOLERA PREVENTIVE!

1866. A. D. 1866.

THE GREAT ZINGARI BITTERS.

THIS WONDERFUL REMEDY was discovered and introduced about twenty years ago by Dr. S. Cheopsus, an eminent Egyptian physcian.

He had long seen and felt the want of some remedy which would strike at the root of disease, and so prevent much of the suffering which the human family was then compelled to endure.

The great question was presented to his mind every day in vivid colors as he moved among the sick and dying, and observed the inefficiency of nearly all the remedies then in use. Thus he was led to think and experiment; and after ten years of study and labor, he presented to his fellow man the wonderful Zingari Bitters. The effect of this preparation in the prevention and cure of disease, was so marvellous and astonishing, that the most flattering marks of royal favor were bestowed upon him who discovered it. His name was placed upon the Roll of Nobles, and a gold medal with the following inscription—Dr. S. Cheopsus, the Public Benefactor—was presented to him by the Viceroy.

The preparation has been used in several epidemics of cholera, both as a preventive and curative measure, and with such great success that it has been introduced into nearly all the general hospitals of the old world.

The old saying that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, applies with marvellous force to cholera, and therefore any remedy that will protect us against this terrible disease should be freely and persistently used.

All pathologists now agree that the cholera poison acts on the system through the blood, and that any combination which acts on the excretory organs, and keeps them in working order, must prevent a sufficient accumulation of the poison to exert its terrible effects on the organism. This is true not only of cholera, but of nearly all other maladies, especially the different forms of fevers.

The Zingarj Bitters is just such a remedy as the above conditions require. It acts on the organs of excretion and secretion, keeping up a perfect balance between them. This Bitters is composed entirely of roots and herbs, so nicely concocted that every organ is acted upon and put in tone. Its taste is pleasant and its effects prompt and lasting.

Numerous cases of the following diseases have been cured by it: Cholera, Diarrhoea, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Fever, Ague, Nervous Debility, Anaemia, Female Irregularties, Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Colic, Scrofula, &c.

Price, one dollar per quart bottle.
